Working Well Together Event

Mock trial event

R v Scott Painters Limited

The health and safety team at Pinsent Masons will present a half day mock trial based on a fictional construction based scenario.

The Summons served are in relation to the Health and Safety at Work Act in regards to WAH Issues.

This event will follow the legal process of a criminal trial through to the passing of a verdict and will help provide delegates with an idea of what it feels like to “have your day in court”.

This is a hugely informative and a must-see event, providing a valuable and sometimes chilling insight into the legal responsibilities of all decision-makers who arrange and carry out construction work, especially Clients and their Contractors.

The event is essential viewing for:

- ◆ Client decision-makers at all levels
- ◆ Construction Contract managers
- ◆ Construction Site managers

The charge for the event is

£35 WWT Members

£45 Non WWT Members

BOOK NOW as places are limited.
